Robert Purvis Esq.

Dear Friend,

Will you accept my heartfelt thanks for your kindness in lending me the picture of Garrison: It has been a great pleasure to the friends here to see it, though they advised me, as the sum contributed for the purpose proved sufficient for a new picture, to have a side-view taken, which would provide portraiture with the people of our beloved friend; none being in existence till now. Some are disappointed in the result, & others much gratified. I entreat you to accept a copy of "the Liberty Bell", herewith sent, of which this side-view makes the frontisiece, in token of cordial regard & high ~~esteem~~ of your kindness in obliging us by the loan of your excellent portrait. Now that it is impossible to keep it, I think they would all have preferred this front-view.

But the side-face as something new,
was their first decision.

With sincere regards to your family, I am, dear Sir,

Yours truly

A. W. Chapman,
